

Translation Services (written) for Health and Other Providers

Sexuality Education Resource Centre (SERC) is a community-based, non-profit, pro-choice organization. Our mission: Promoting sexual health through education. Our Vision: A diverse society that celebrates healthy sexuality throughout life.

To enhance information access for immigrant and refugee communities, SERC is committed to providing quality translation services for written resources on topics such as:

- Reproductive health
- Sexual health
- Maternal/child health
- Orientation to the health system and other services

We do translation for brochures, booklets, fact sheets, posters, hospital forms, etc. All translated resources are written in “user-friendly” language and in a culturally appropriate manner.

Fee for Translation*: 30¢ per word on average (minimum of $25.00)

The final product is in typed form. For languages not using the standard alphabet, there may be an extra charge.

To ensure quality translation, we also provide the following services:

- focus testing within the communities
- back translation of translated documents
- independent reviewing of translated documents

* Large projects will be assessed and a contract negotiated.

 Fee negotiable
